Woodbury, NY, July 6, 2023. SterlingRisk (Woodbury, NY) has again been named to the prestigious FORTUNE® Best Workplaces in New York list while receiving recertification as a Great Place to Work® for the fourth year in a row.

According to FORTUNE, Best Workplaces in New York represents the “ultimate roundup of companies that New Yorkers want to work for” and is considered “the report card on the companies that are winning the game of attracting fresh young talent!” The Great Place to Work® recertification was received after SterlingRisk participated in a comprehensive review process to qualify for the sought-after workplace designation. Since its start in 1992, Great Place to Work has surveyed more than 100 million employees and used those insights to define what makes a great workplace.

“We are deeply honored to again be among the FORTUNE Best Workplaces in New York and recertified as a Great Place to Work,” stated SterlingRisk CEO David Sterling. “Receiving recognition as a leading workplace is a true testament to the extraordinary men and women who contribute to our success every day.”

The recent Great Place to Work results revealed that 97 percent of surveyed employees view SterlingRisk as a great place to work. Conversely, the US national average is only 57 percent for employees who view their company as a great place to work. The survey also found that 99 percent of SterlingRisk employees agreed with the statement, “When you join the company, you are made to feel welcome.”

Donna Raab, Chief Talent Officer at SterlingRisk, observed, “More than ever before, employees are choosing to work at organizations where they are treated with respect. They want to know that their contributions are valued. That’s what they find at SterlingRisk — an inclusive work environment where new ideas and perspectives are welcomed and acknowledged. It’s why we are a preferred career destination within the insurance community and the reason we continually rank so high in workplace satisfaction.”
